

URGENT OHIO VOTE UPDATE

Yesterday our team emailed you about the important early voting that is happening right now in Ohio. I hope you took the time to learn more about this important change to Ohio election laws, but if you haven't please visit www.VoteNowOhio.com to learn how you can register to vote and cast your ballot today.

Ever since John McCain announced me as his running mate in Dayton, Ohio, I've been traveling across our great country meeting voters and hearing their concerns. I'll tell you what I've told them -- in these times of crisis, we need a tested, proven leader like John McCain.

That's why it's important for you to cast your ballot today in Ohio. Over the next five days, you can register to vote and cast your ballot for November's election at the same time.

The time for talking is over. Empty rhetoric does nothing to solve the challenges we face, which is why I'm asking for your vote so John McCain and I can get to work immediately to shake things up in Washington. As the mother of five and the wife of a proud union member, I understand what it takes in these difficult economic times, and working with John McCain we will get our economy moving again.

By promoting small businesses, keeping taxes low and fighting for good jobs for all Americans, we will work each and every day to improve our economy. I know we can trust John McCain because he has a proven record of fighting for American families, keeping our nation safe and always putting our country first.

Ohio promises to be a tight contest on Election Day, and a few thousand votes can make the difference between victory and defeat. Barack Obama's campaign has already proven they will stop at nothing to win this election, and they're already flooding the polls with new voters and out-of-state college students. That's why we need you to take two important actions today.

1. Find out where you can vote early by clicking here.
2. Share this information with your friends. Many people aren't aware of these new laws, so we're working hard to spread the word.

One vote can make a difference. If every person reading this email gets out to vote early we can be in a much stronger position come Election Day. So please, don't delay and help us by learning more at www.VoteNowOhio.com.

Thanks,

Governor Sarah Palin
